ROBBIE BURNS TEA

On Sunday January 21, UCW Unit 1 and 2 hosted a Robbie Burns Day themed tea. This was in place of our annual Christmas Tea, normally held in November, which we were unable to have due to the renovations in the auditorium.

It has been many years since a Robbie Burns Tea has been held, and we were happy to be able to host one once again. This tea was all things Scottish, tartan and plaid from the centrepieces with the sprigs of heather, to the collection of memorabilia, to our resident Scotsman, Gary Macdonald who led with the traditional Scottish grace before the meal.

We had a tremendous turnout from the congregation who enjoyed a luncheon which the UCW ladies served to them. There was a freewill donation taken which amounted to $490.00. Thank you to everyone who donated. This money is split between the 2 Units and is then given to various causes within the church and the community.

Once again, Thank You to all who attended and we look forward to hosting again next year – Christmas, maybe.....or perhaps a surprise Theme.

On behalf of our UCW groups, Susan Hrycan

A UCW CHRISTMAS

Twas the night before Christmas at St. Andrew's, how merry!

Laurie was dressed as a sugar plum fairy.

Lynn, Winnie, and Pat were trimming the tree,
While Barbara brewed up some peppermint tea.

Tilly and Rhona were making our lunch.

And Donna prepared the Fruitcake Punch.

Cecile, Phyllis, and Geke relaxed by the fire,
As Sandra tuned up the Mistletoe Choir.

"Come Betty, Sarina, Peggy, and Jane,

We really must practice our songs once again!"

Lit candles were placed by the manger with care,
In hopes that the Christ Child soon would be there.

Both Karens wrapped presents, their faces aglow,
As Shelley May announced. "Oh it's starting to snow!"

The church looked so lovely, their work was all done.

The ladies agreed, they'd had so much fun!

Anneke went out to shovel the walk,

Alida glanced up at the grandfather clock.

As midnight approached, they were filled with such cheer,

Wishing each other a Happy New Year.

Then Therese thought she heard as she turned off the light.

"Blessed Christmas to all, and to all a Good Night!"
